

Alvin Gainey is a long time child advocate with leadership at the national, state, council and local levels of PTA. He currently serves as an elected member of National PTA's Nominating and Leadership Recruitment Committee (NLRC), the Secretary of Florida PTA, the Bylaws Chair and Executive Committee Member for Georgia PTA, a member of the Governance and Convention Committees for North Carolina PTA and is a Past President of Miami-Dade County Council.

Alvin's guiding principles are his faith, family, and service to others; serving as a mentor with the 5000 Role Models of Excellence Program, as a certified school volunteer with Miami-Dade County Public Schools, and in various community organizations.

Alvin brings energy, humor, keen insight and an unmatched passion to all that he does and his unique experience and varied skillset enhances his service and commitment to meeting the needs of the community.

Alvin is the father of three: Kiera, Alvin III and Alyssa. He's married to Jessica and has worked in funeral services for more than a decade.