

Kathy McDonald grows people. As the assistant director for network partnerships with the Florida College Access Network (FCAN), she facilitates cross-sector collaboration in existing and newly forming Local College Access Networks (LCANs) across the state through the LCAN learning community. Kathy has led the professional development of teams and leaders for the last 18 years, developing programs for numerous organizations including USF, SPC, Hillsborough Education Foundation, Accenture, PwC, and the City of Chicago. Kathy earned her MBA from Northwestern University and is a certified leadership coach with the Institute for Professional Excellence in Coaching.