

Charman Postel is a native of Florida and currently resides in Palm Beach County. Since 2011, Charman has been a member of PTA. Currently she is the South Region Representative. She recently served as a Florida PTA Board of Directors member and the President of Palm Beach County Council of PTA/PTSA this past term, 2018-2020. Her commitment to our PTA mission and passion to advocate for our children has led her to a number of community leadership involvement opportunities. Currently she chairs Palm Beach County School District Diversity and Equity Advisory Board Committee, and is the Vice Chair of the Academic Advisory Committee. In addition to being a member of the Advisory Boundary Committee, she represents parents on Racial Equity Institute PBC Schools Alumni group. She has served as Florida PTA's Membership Chair from 2016-2018 and the President of J.C. Mitchell Elementary PTA, which received a designation for National PTA School of Excellence in 2017. She is a firm believer of John C. Maxwell's quote, "a leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way!"
