

Dr. Danielle Thomas is a passionate aunt and educator with 20 years of experience as an Elementary ESE Teacher, Instructional Coach, and Curriculum Specialist. Danielle also has 15 years of dedicated involvement in PTA through a variety of roles including Westside Elementary PTA President, Volusia County Council PTA President and Chair of Education-Learning Transitions, Resolutions & Legislation for Florida PTA. It is through her enthusiasm for PTA that Danielle learned the legislative process and became a passionate child advocate.

Danielle holds a B.A. in Elementary/Special Education from Providence College, a M.S. in Reading and Literacy Education from Walden University, and an Ed.D. in Educational Leadership from the University of Central Florida. Go Knights!

Danielle is dedicated to advocacy on behalf of all children, working to provide equity access to education and educational opportunities that support a wide range of learners including advocating for much needed dyslexia legislation. She has also been outspoken around the need to ensure our children's safety in every aspect of their lives, especially on our school campuses.

Currently, Danielle is a Curriculum Specialist for McGraw-Hill Inc., owns Consulting with Doc, LLC., and serves as the Vice President of Educational Development for Florida PTA.
