

Jennifer Southerland

HCC PTA Military Inclusion Chair and Lead Educator, MCEC Family Programs-Panhandle

Jennifer Southerland is an Army spouse of 23 years stationed in Tampa, FL at MacDill AFB. They have two daughters age 13 and 19. She holds a M.S. in Community Counseling with a concentration in Marriage and Family Systems and is a Master Parent Educator for the Military Child Education Coalition since 2016. Most recently she has taken the Lead Educator Position for MCEC Family Programs-Panhandle. Jennifer is also currently serving as the Hillsborough County Council PTA Military Inclusion Chair, a member of the Florida PTA Family Community Engagement Committee, a member of The Florida PTA Educational Pathways Committee and the Restaurant Spirit Night Chair for her local PTSA unit at Randall Middle School in Lithia, FL. Jennifer is a member of the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa Parent Advisory Council as well as serving as a parent facilitator on the University of Alabama Military Parent Affinity Group.

Title of Session:

Military Families: Who are they and how can we support them?