

Karen Mazzola is an advocate at heart. As an Attorney, her career path has contributed to her being a passionate leader/voice in the PTA. She has worked as an advocate for victim rights as an Assistant State Attorney, citizen rights with FDLE, children and family rights with, and has settled into a position with regards to civil rights as an Assistant Regional Counsel in the child welfare arena.

Karen currently serves as the Florida PTA Legislation Committee Chair and is our representative on FDLE's Advisory Board for Missing and Exploited Persons, No Place for a Child Coalition, and the Florida Coalition to Prevent Gun Violence. She previously served on the FLPTA Board of Directors as FL PTA Treasurer and as a Region Representative. Karen currently serves on the following FLPTA statewide committees: Resolutions, Legislation, By-Laws, Centennial Celebration

Karen is also active in her community with a variety of organizations such as church and Boy Scouts. This year Karen was honored by Seminole County Public Schools as a Volunteer Dividend with over 3,000 hours!

Karen and her PTA partner and husband Andrew are proud parents of Nicholas, a student at Seminole High School, Seminole County, where she also serves on the PTSA Executive Committee and School Advisory Committee.
