

Misti Pollaro, Pinellas County, FL currently works for the Parent Support Network Project (PSN) and for Family Network on Disabilities (FND). She works as a Parent Training Coordinator in the Central Florida Region, training families and caregivers on Special Education (IDEA) laws and advocacy, connecting them to resources and options to help navigate the Special Education process. With over 22 years of personal experience in Special Education, all three of her children, and herself have varying abilities. With over 10 years of experience in public speaking, presenting, and teaching on Advocacy and IDEA. Misti is able to share the knowledge and experiences in a way that parents can relate.