

Maxine Lewers is a native of Jamaica and grew up in Hempstead, New York.

Maxine currently serves on the Florida PTA as the Vice President for Leadership Development and also serves on the Bylaws and Policy Committee, Site Selection Committee, Personnel Committee and the Membership Committee, She also serves on the National PTA Diversity and Inclusion & Outreach Committee, and the National PTA Disaster Relief Committee.

Her greatest joy is being the mother of Victoria Elizabeth, Alfred III, Grant Thomas, and Rebeca Grace, and is married to Alfred Lewers Jr.