

Alison Turner currently serves as the National PTA Vice President for Membership. She has served on the national board before, as well as on four additional national committees: Strategic Planning, Resolutions, Mission Engagement, and Bylaws.

Alison is a past Nevada PTA president, vice president for advocacy, member of the state board, and has served in PTA leadership roles at the local and council levels. She has extensive experience in other non-profits outside PTA in the U.S. and Ecuador, as both a volunteer leader and staff. Alison also has experience working and managing in the for-profit world, and as a small business owner.

And she is passionate about membership!
