

DEI Newsletter Article – December 2020

As the winter holidays approach, families across the country dream of loved ones drawing near. That dream is complicated this year by the ongoing coronavirus pandemic, which is prompting many to rethink old ways of celebrating. For interfaith families, finding new ways to observe ancient traditions presents particular challenges and opportunities. Kveller.com offers suggestions for families looking to integrate Jewish and Christian traditions this Hanukkah and Christmas season.

<https://www.kveller.com/article/tips-for-interfaith-families-celebrating-hanukkah-christmas/>