

Susan Foley serves as a Project Specialist with Palm Beach County Behavioral Health Coalition. With her background in Therapeutic Recreation and recreation event planning, Susan adds a bit of fun to any training. Working with children with ability differences she engages and values each child for their uniqueness. She'll be sharing ways to Talk Early - Talk Often with your children and teens at various ages and stages to keep positive communication flowing as a strong protective factor.